Identification of My Uniqueness – Understanding Who I Am

Areas I seem to see effectiveness, have been affirmed by others: (skills, abilities, things I am good at)

People

My ultimate passion is people. I love to work with people, find their abilities, and listen to them. I can adapt well to a variety of different individuals and speak with them as I see them in a unique way. I love to rally people for a cause or purpose. I like to see people succeed!

Preaching/Speaking

Any opportunity to get up and share God's Word with people I will jump at! To preach God's Word would be a close second for me as passions go. Speaking, I also enjoy as I am able to communicate truths and ideas. I come alive when given these opportunities!

Vision Development

I like to take an idea and develop it into an action plan. I can catch a vision, make it my own, and cause it to become contagious to others. I like to take the plan of a vision and transform it into a passionate thing for others.

Organization/Versatility

I like to take something that is confusing or unclear and present it in such a way that people understand it clearly. I see something needing done and like to rally the right people and tools needed to accomplish the task the most efficient way. I am able to notice when I can accomplish something more efficiently or when I need to find the right person to do it better.

Loyalty/Commitment

This fifth strength may stem from circumstances and reasons from my past. I have a drive to complete task no matter what. When I take on a task, job, position, ministry, or relationship I stay the course. Do to this; I take some of these items on slower than others. Quitting is not an option. If I leave something, I must leave it well. My word is very important for me to keep. I will stand in place as others may begin to back down.

My Core Values:

Family
Church
Integrity
Obedience
